EBU Profile

The European Broadcasting Union is the largest association of national broadcasters in the world. We promote cooperation between broadcasters and facilitate the exchange of audiovisual content. The EBU works to ensure that the crucial role of public service broadcasters is recognised and taken into consideration by decision-makers.

L'UER en bref

L'Union Européenne de Radio-Télévision est la plus grande association de radiodiffuseurs nationaux au monde. Elle promeut la coopération entre les radiodiffuseurs et facilite les échanges de contenu audiovisuel. L'UER agit pour que le rôle crucial des radiodiffuseurs de service public soit reconnu et pris en compte par les décideurs.

25 Juillet / July 2007

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 13.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office for National Statistics 2000). The number of people aged 65 and over is projected to increase to 16.5 million by 2020, and the number of people aged 75 and over to 8.5 million (Office for National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the UK, and a number of initiatives have been launched to address this need. The Department of Health has launched the 'Ageing Well' initiative, which aims to improve the health and well-being of older people. The initiative includes a number of measures, such as increasing the number of health professionals who specialise in the care of older people, and improving the training of health professionals in the care of older people. The Department of Health has also launched the 'Ageing Well' website, which provides information and advice for older people and their families.

The Department of Health has also launched the 'Ageing Well' campaign, which aims to raise awareness of the needs of older people. The campaign includes a number of measures, such as increasing the number of health professionals who specialise in the care of older people, and improving the training of health professionals in the care of older people. The Department of Health has also launched the 'Ageing Well' website, which provides information and advice for older people and their families.
